

LUKE 23:50-24:53

THE SON OF MAN IS RESURECTED

Key Goal

Students will be able to tell their friends and family about the resurrection and why it is important.

Lesson Objectives

Please read the scripture text above and discuss the following Lesson Objectives with your children.

- Identify the events surrounding the resurrection.
- Explain the importance of the resurrection.
- List the reasons why Christians meet on Sunday.
- Recall the instructions Jesus gives to His disciples before He ascends to Heaven.

Application

Please discuss the following application points (as illustrated or set forth in the context of the lesson) with your children.

- We must praise God in the same way the disciples do after the resurrection.
- In light of Christ's life, death, and resurrection, we can have real hope and trust that He will return again.
- We must repent of our sins and tell others about the forgiveness that comes through repentance.
